I. Foreword

1. RAN P3A-KS shall serve as a guideline for the ministries/institutions and local governments to provide protection to and empowerment of women and children during conflicts through systematic, coordinated, planned and sustained with clear assignment corresponding with their respective authorities and functions as the bodies that are responsible for the implementation of the protection and empowerment of women and children during conflicts.
2. RAN P3A-KS is the implementation of the principles of peace and security for women and children, in addition to implementing Presidential Decree No. 18 of 2014 on the Protection and Empowerment of Women and Children during Social Conflicts that is in line with the principles as defined in Law No. 7 of 2012 on Social Conflict Management, as well as the Government's commitment to protect, promote, and uphold human rights, especially for women and children, and give opportunity to women to participate in the peace process pursuant to the principles set out in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, Law No. 11 of 2005 on the Ratification of the International Covenant on Economic, Social, and Cultural Rights, and Law No. 12 of 2005 on the Ratification of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights.

3. The implementation of RAN P3A-KS has been in synergy with the National Medium-Term Development Plan of 2010 - 2014, National Medium-Term Development Plan of 2015 - 2019, and the National Long-Term Development Plan 2005-2025. These National Action Plans also relate to the elaboration of the program activities at the provincial and district/city level, of which their implementation will be reviewed every 5 (five) years.

II. RAN P3A-KS program.

RAN P3A-KS shall be implemented gradually and continuously consisting of:

- a. Preparation stage by 2014; and
- b. Implementation stage in 2015-2019.

RAN P3A-KS consists of:

1. Preventive Program.

This program is aimed to build awareness and intensify the roles of the communities, local governments, traditional institutions, religious communication forums, mass media, and woman service units to promote and protect women and children during conflicts, build the local institutional capacity, increase understanding of the importance of the principles of Presidential Regulations on the Protection and Empowerment of Women and Children during Conflicts, enhance the competence of the trainers in the prevention of violence against women and children during conflicts, provision more public spaces/urban green open spaces for women and children in conflicts-prone areas.

2. Handling Program.

This program is aimed to improve the access and quality of services required of women and children of victims of violence in conflict areas by ministries/institutions corresponding to their respective authorities.

The improved access and quality of services required by women and children of victims of violence in conflict areas may be given:

- a. directly to women and children of victims of conflicts, such as: health rehabilitation services, including reproductive health, social rehabilitation, social reintegration, legal aids and assistance, in accordance with the minimum service standards and standard operating procedures already established. Direct services

Results of Formulation dated 3 June 2014

are also given to women and children in the form of fulfillment of basic needs and the specific needs of women and children, namely:

1) Basic needs including food, clothing, and shelter.

a) Food needs, among other milk, clean drinking water, and/or foodstuff, local foods.
